

This radio station K-Love is the best thing on radio today. There's no bad language. And it is the most encouraging station in the world. I would not listen to FM if you take this station off the air. Why would you take something off the air if it is encourage to familys and doesn't have any bad music, like cop killing, gang influence, drugs, or sex. WHY?